Foundation Restructuring

Ms. Eva Jimenez, Shasta College Associate Vice President of Economic Workforce and Development/Executive Director of Shasta College Foundation, said good evening, as you recall Scott Thompson retired on May 25th. Scott is very happy in Medford, Oregon. He is spending lots of time with family. The Shasta College Foundation Executive Board met last month, and at the beginning of the meeting, I was serving as the Foundation President and at the end, I was the Executive Director.

Also, there were two new Board members, Bob Steinacher, an ex- Shasta College Board member, and also Mike Mari, Shasta College's Dean of Physical Education and Athletics. The Shasta College Foundation Executive Committee now includes:

- Joe Wyse, Current Member (Non-voting, ex officio)
- Eva Jimenez, Executive Director
- Rayola Pratt, Secretary - Board of Trustees Appointed Member
- Steve Ahrens, Emeritus - Non-voting (as of July 2014)
- Mike Mari, Current Member
- Joe Gibson, Current Member
- Hiram Oilar, Current Member
- Star Alfaro, Current Member
- Pat Frost, Current Member

Upcoming Foundation Activity

We are excited about the team, and about the annual retreat planned for August 14, 2019, at which we will elect the new president and the officers. We will also review the bylaws, but most of the meeting will be spent working with a strategic consultant, looking to the bright future of the Foundation.

This year, we will continue the Speaker Series with McConnell Foundation and also our science expeditions. We are looking forward to new strategic projects and expanding the Pay-It-Forward efforts.
