

PEOPLE, CULTURE & SOCIETY

Your Pathway

HUMAN SERVICES

Associate in Science Degree

This degree will provide you with the foundational skills and concepts about human interaction within the social, cultural, and economic system of individuals and families within our society. Individual and family issues that arise from changing social patterns have created a vast need for many different support services. With this degree, you will be able to enter into many paraprofessional positions, and you will also have a solid foundation of knowledge for transferring to a university to pursue a 4-year degree in Social Work.
