

Expectations for a Successful Campus Visit

Student Responsibility

In order to have an effective and enjoyable tour for all parties, all guests on Shasta College facilities are to abide by the Shasta College Standards of Conduct. We expect all students to behave in a responsible and respectful manner when participating in campus tours. Shasta College tour guides reserve the right to end the tour should individuals in the group not abide by the Standards of Conduct.

Chaperone Responsibility

Tour chaperones are expected to assist the Shasta College tour guide. It is the chaperone's responsibility to ensure appropriate student behavior. These expectations ensure that you and your students have a rewarding and safe experience at Shasta College. Shasta College reserves the right to end the tour should individuals in the group not abide by the Standards of Conduct.

Notable Policies and Regulations

- No one is allowed to leave the group or tour site without the permission of a staff member or chaperone.
- Students and their parents may be held responsible for damages to college facilities, including but not limited to furniture, fixtures, classrooms, equipment, computers, etc..
- Hate speech will not be tolerated and will be immediately referred to chaperones and Shasta College staff.
- Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, tobacco products, and cigarettes - including electronic cigarettes - are not permitted at any time. Any student found to be under the influence or in possession of these items will be referred to chaperones and Shasta College staff.
- Phones, photography, or other applications will not be used to harass or intimidate any individual (student, chaperone, tour guides, staff, instructors etc.).

If you are not feeling well, please take care of yourself and refrain from visiting campus. Information regarding COVID-19 requirements or mask policies can be found on the Shasta College Coronavirus Information webpage.
