

Low Cost Technology Options for Students

1. The College Buys website run by the Foundation for California Community Colleges offers low-priced options for Chromebooks (for example, Lenovo Chromebook for $239.95), laptops (for example, Windows 10 tablet/pc for $189.95), and software (for example, Microsoft office for $39.95). - <https://foundationccc.org/CollegeBuys>
2. Computers For Classrooms is a nonprofit in Chico, CA that offers lower-cost options for qualifying low-income individuals. - <http://computersforclassrooms.org/computers-for-low-income-families/>
3. Tech Exchange out of Oakland is a nonprofit that offers refurbished computers for purchase.- <https://www.techexchange.org/resources.html>
4. PCs for People offers low-cost technology for qualifying low-income individuals. - <https://www.pcsforpeople.org/get-technology/>
5. Best Buy offers student discounts. - <https://www.bestbuy.com/site/back-to-school/college-student-deals/pcmcat276200050000.c?id=pcmcat276200050000>
6. Microsoft offers student discounts. - <https://www.microsoft.com/en-us/store/b/education>