INSPIRATION

Tommy
Shasta College Knight

I started Shasta College while in high school and struggled with some science classes, so I enrolled in fire tech, but it wasn't for me either. I had some buddies who were Explorers in the police department, and after joining them, I fell in love with Law Enforcement. I started in the Sheriff's office at 19 as a correctional officer, continued attending school, and at 22 I was promoted to Deputy Sheriff. Tragically, at 24, I ended up getting into an off-duty car accident, which left me with a severe traumatic brain injury. My short-term memory is shot. It's rough, but we're getting there. Every day is a gift.

Being back in school has just been scary 'cause, with this brain, it's hard. I'll do an assignment and can't tell you how I did it. I took a water restoration class and wanted to know more, and it just worked out that another water class was starting. Pam, my water instructor, has been incredibly helpful. I'll text her after hours or on the weekends about homework, and if she has the time, she'll spend another hour to re-walk me through it, or she'll make videos on her little whiteboard and show me how to do it. She's really held my hand and has been my biggest inspiration.

I graduated in May with an associate degree in industrial technology and all my certifications in water/wastewater treatment. This summer, I must complete my state boards so I can go to work. I'm not content with being disabled out. I've been talking to National University about their bachelor's in public administration with a focus on water and wastewater management.

It's scary looking at it before you start, but if you want it, go for it. Once you're here, it's a family, and everyone helps so much in every aspect. Your dreams are possible! You can see that with Shasta College, and I'm achieving it!

SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL - JULIUS CAESAR - “THE EVIL THAT MEN DO LIVES AFTER THEM”

Julius Caesar returns to the heart of Rome victorious from war. But as he ascends to power, Brutus and the conspiring Cassius join forces to murder Caesar and save the great city from a dangerous dictator. In Shakespeare's famed political thriller, upheaval begets more upheaval, and traitorous actions threaten the very stability of Rome. Known for their dynamic, physical storytelling, upstart crew collective returns with a bold all-female and nonbinary cast, which, under the direction of Associate Artistic Director Rosa Joshi, illuminates this tale's ancient themes of power, loyalty, and betrayal.

SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL - AS YOU LIKE IT - "LOVE WILL FIND A WAY"

The Forest of Arden comes to life in the Thomas Theatre when Rosalind and her cousin Celia escape an oppressive uncle and take to the wilderness. Disguised as a man, Rosalind searches for her true love, Orlando—who doesn't recognize her in her new persona. But anything can happen in the forest, including poems in the trees, star-crossed shepherds, and a band of exiles who become family. Identities are lost and true selves are found in Shakespeare's beloved comedy, bringing its magic to our most intimate theatre in this song-filled, 1960s-infused production by director Lisa Peterson (Hamlet, 2016).
